

FOR SOLDIERS IS URGED BY BOK

Tells of Sammee's Gift of a Quarter Toward Y. M. C. A. Fund

DESCRIBES GREAT WORK

HARRISBURG, Nov. 12.—The spirit of the great drive for the Y. M. C. A. war fund of Pennsylvania was summed up last night at the opening of the local campaign when Edward Bok, State chairman of the drive, held up the first quarter of a dollar contributed toward Philadelphia's share.

"This came from a soldier boy at Camp Meade," said Mr. Bok, who was the principal speaker before the 600 business men and women who will conduct the campaign here. "Listen. Here is what he wrote: 'I hear you are to be the main guy of the campaign back home. We boys don't want to miss the buck when it comes to giving the katie some of us can't do much. I've got a mother and three kid sisters back in Philly. I'm in the States. I guess you don't know where that is. I wanted to do something. I sent $10 a month back home and haven't many ways of saving, so I cut out the smokes. The money is what I saved.'"

"I hear you did not have much time for the Y. M. C. A. before the war. I didn't give a damn either then. But I do now. You rich guys talk this Y. M. C. A. but we live it. Soak your rich friends hard. Don't use my name. I'm too young to get my name in the papers. But some day I won't be, for when I get over there and go over the top, I'm going to plug a German or two."

"This letter is typical of the feeling of the soldier boys," said Mr. Bok. "The Y. M. C. A. is the connecting link between him and home. It is his home, his club, his recreation place, his library, his reading room, his writing room."

Mr. Bok said that the other day he desired to know the feeling of the men toward the Y. M. C. A. and remarked to a private. "What is this joint here?" pointing to the hut. "That ain't no halloo joint, that ain't," he replied. "Come on, fellows, we'll show him through." Then the soldiers took him into the buildings he had been instrumental in placing in the camp.

The speakers traced the work of the Y. M. C. A. from the time the green-tinted man leaves his home until he gets within forty yards of the German lines; denied the charge that the secretaries, some of whom have given their lives for the work and many of whom have been injured, were slackers, and made an earnest plea that the local aim to raise $52,000 for the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. work be raised to a minimum of $75,000.

READING, Pa., Nov. 12.—At the opening of the Young Men's Christian Association war fund campaign here it was announced that $57,000 more than the $45,000 stipulated by Edward Bok, of Philadelphia, had been raised. Mr. Bok's only condition was that the $45,000 would have to be raised by the opening of the campaign. The $10,000 total will be over-subscribed as the country districts have already pledged themselves to exceed their share, $22,000. Many corporations have reported gifts in four figures.

WIDOW OF PIONEER IS DEAD

Five Sons and Two Daughters Mourn Late Atlantic City Resident

ATLANTIC CITY, Nov. 12.—Five sons, three of whom are prosperous hotelmen, and two daughters survive Mrs. Christine Myers, widow of George Myers, a pioneer resident of the resort, who died last night at her home in Chelsea. She came to Atlantic City in 1876 when the now famous city of pleasure still was in the village class. Wise investment in real estate, which doubled and tripled in value, gave the family its start.

The sons of the deceased are Charles Myers, owner of the Hotel Breakers; Daniel W. and Jacob Myers, part owners of the Hotel Chelsea; George and Fred Myers. The daughters are Mrs. Anne Mueller, Meriden, Conn., and Mrs. J. B. Thompson, wife of City Commissioner Thompson, president of the Hotel Chelsea Company.

MANY BALK AT JURY DUTY

Nine Fail to Answer Rollcall—All Are in Military Service

WOODBURY, N. J., Nov. 12.—At the opening of court yesterday Judge Carrow found a long list of jurors who asked to be excused. He said he believed it might be a hardship to many to serve in these busy times, but it might also hold up the workings of the court. The next term will be in May, and without jurors some cases might have to go over to then. Six, mostly farmers, were allowed to go, but must be in readiness for a summons at any time. At roll call there were nine absentees, but it was found that all were in war service.

ALIENS MUST WATCH STEP IN NEW YORK

Menace of Enemy Activities Rouses Authorities to Take Drastic Action

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—New York authorities today took drastic steps to check the enemy alien menace which is admittedly alarming, especially along the water fronts.

The bomb squad was trebled and the bureau of combustibles is co-operating by exercising more care in issuing permits to move and handle explosives.

The checking of a list of 25,000 German applicants to enter the barred zones also was begun today. It is believed that at least 600 of these have committed perjury and, if so, they will be arrested and interned.

Investigation also shows that 600 Austrians are employed as captives on lighters operating around New York. Some of these are known to have been active in water-front labor troubles of recent date and also are under Federal investigation.

MEDALS AWARDED BY CITY FOR FRANKLIN INSTITUTE

Five Are Given to Various Persons as Rewards for Mechanical Ingenuity

A device which enables millers to make a good grade of flour at comparative small cost and which is known as the Midget Marvel flour mill, won an award of a John Scott League Medal and Premium for Alfred Hishworth Fattoroli, of London, England. The award, which was announced today, was made by the city of Philadelphia on recommendation of the Franklin Institute.

Similar awards were made to Max Ulrich Schopp, of Zurich, Switzerland, for the Schopp metal spraying process; to Thomas A. McCall, of South Akron, O., for the development of the Hoover automatic typewriter; and to John M. Phillips, of Hamilton, O., for improvements in the typewriter. The Franklin Institute awarded the Edward Longstreth Medal of Merit to the Hoover, Owens, Bentscher Company of Hamilton, O., for the development of ingenious methods used in the manufacture of the typewriter mentioned.

NEW DATA AGAINST MINOTTO

Indications Now Point to Accused Count Being an Austrian

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—New evidence is to be introduced by Inspector C. H. Paul, of the local branch of the Immigration Bureau, who has been conducting the hearing in the case of Count James Minotto, charged with professional activities. The investigation will be resumed next Thursday.

According to Mr. Paul, evidence collected by Lieutenant Commander Sturges Eddy, of the New York Naval Intelligence Bureau and expert on the Tonicum spy system, will be introduced. Federal authorities also are said to be investigating a report that Minotto is an Austrian subject. He says he is an Italian.

LOYALTY ISSUE RAISED IN ELECTION AT NEWARK

Socialist Candidate Promises Peace, Public Ownership and Estates at Cost

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 12.—Benedit Prieth, under indictment for treasonable utterances in his newspaper, is one of the candidates in today's election to name five City Commissioners here. His opponents declare he has raised the loyalty issue. They demand his defeat as a pro-German.

Seventy-nine candidates are out for the five commissionerships. In the field are forty-five Republicans, twenty-five Democrats, five Socialists and four Independents. Mayor Raymond, failing to get the Republican endorsement, is running as an Independent. He charges the Republicans and Democrats will deliver the city government to the corporations. Socialist candidates promise peace, public ownership and food at cost.
